They deeply nourish your strands, making them strong and luxuriously shiny all along.

Argan oil deeply nourishes hair follicles and strengthens the outer protective layer of hair.

Avocado oil is a real cocktail of macro- and microelements: it contains potassium, zinc, sodium, phosphorus, copper, magnesium and iron. The oil nourishes and revitalizes hair.

Abyssinian oil protects strands, giving smoothness and shine and intensively moisturizing them. It helps protect the scalp from dryness, improving its barrier function.

Arginine is an amino acid to improve microcirculation and the skin's protective function. It penetrates deep into the skin layers, restores the hair structure from within, nourishes and protects it.
