MONO FRAGRANCES — DECADE'S TREND

Mono fragrance is a parfum with an accent on one ingredient. Recently, they started gaining popularity, and renowned luxury brands started to make more of them.

Mono fragrances gained love of consumers due to their comfort, clarity, and cosiness.

Aromania collection is not only individual fragrances but also a perfect chance to be a perfumer yourself. 7 fragrances that may be combined between each other will help you to make a unique perfume look.

Now, only you decide which fragrance will accompany you today.

FROM MASTERS OF PERFUME WORLD

The palette of fragrances for Faberlic has been made by two talented French perfumers - Evelyne Boulanger and Delphine Lebeau.

Evelyne Boulanger as a perfumer just adores to experiment with various fragrances making fascinating compositions that combine refinement, brightness, and saturation. She wanted to give the same possibility to Faberlic customers including into Aromania collection following fragrances: Apple, Violet, Lilac, White Tea, and Bergamot.

From her very childhood, Delphine Lebeau was catching aromas and just adored them. Those were any aromas, not just perfume: aroma of mowed grass, spices in the kitchen, fruits in the market... They attracted and inspired her. And namely these small things changed her point of view. She got eager to embody them in perfumery.

Delphine made two fragrances of Aromania collection - Vanilla and Aqua.
